Press release

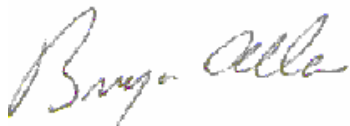

To whom it may concern,

The British Dance Council would like to reassure all amateur and professional competitors, either domestic in the United Kingdom or resident overseas, that everyone is welcome at all competitions and championships organised under British Dance Council rules which covers 100% of all Ballroom and Latin competitions in the United Kingdom.

In these difficult political times and as an emergency procedure all entries will be accepted from all bona fide amateur and professional competitors whether or not their registration has been taken away or denied.

All entries to any appropriate championship or competition organised under British Dance Council rules will be accepted.

Yours sincerely,

BRYAN ALLEN
President
