

Peggy Spencer MBE, Honorary Member of the British Dance Council and President of the ISTD.

Peggy Spencer was awarded the first and only British Dance Council "Lifetime Achievement Award" in 2004 for her contribution to dance.

Peggy started dancing in 1945 and has been involved non-stop ever since. With her late husband, Frank, she made the Penge Ballroom renowned with its fabulous Penge Formation Team, known throughout the world of dance. She appeared with her teams on "Come Dancing" for 40 years and travelled the world teaching, adjudicating and promoting British Ballroom and Latin dancing.

She received an MBE, 8 Carl-Alan Awards and many other accolades for her work and dedication. Her contributions to the British Dance Council meetings and her work on Committees going back years is immeasurable. She believed that dancing is a social asset and a joy for everyone.

She is one of a small band of specially selected people who have appeared on "This is Your Life" and received the famous Red Book.

Peggy Spencer MBE was a true pioneer!
